CONSTITUTION

Note: The clubs and persons who from time to time are members of the Association are an incorporated association by the name given in rule 1 of these Rules.

Under section 46 of the Associations Incorporation Reform Act 2012, these Rules are taken to constitute the terms of a contract between the Association and its members.

PART 1—PRELIMINARY

1 Name

The name of the incorporated association is “Dandenong and Districts Pool League Incorporated”, referred to in these rules as the DDPL.

Note: Under section 23 of the Act, the name of the association and its registration number must appear on all its business documents.

2 Purposes

The purposes of the association are to:

- 2.1 Promote interest in eight-ball pool.
- 2.2 Promote good fellowship amongst those interested in eight-ball pool in the area of the DDPL.
- 2.3 Educate, train, coach and encourage competitors and members of the DDPL in the advancement of the sport in general.
- 2.4 Coordinate with other registered bodies for the advancement of eight-ball pool.
- 2.5 Is to be non-sectarian, non-political, non-sexist and non-racist.

3 Financial Year

The financial year of the Association is each period of 12 months ending on 31st of December.

4 Definitions

In these Rules:

- 4.1 absolute majority, of the Committee, means a majority of the committee members currently holding office and entitled to vote at the time (as distinct from a majority of committee members present at a committee meeting).
- 4.2 appeal subcommittee means a subcommittee appointed under rule 23.3
- 4.3 associate member means a member referred to in rule 14.
- 4.4 Chairperson, of a general meeting or committee meeting, means the person chairing the meeting as required under rule 46.
- 4.5 Committee means the Committee having management of the business of the Association.
- 4.6 committee meeting means a meeting of the Committee held in accordance with these Rules.
- 4.7 committee member means a member of the Committee elected or appointed under Division 3 of Part 5.
- 4.8 disciplinary appeal meeting means a meeting of the appeal subcommittee convened for the purposes of rule 24.
- 4.9 disciplinary meeting means a meeting of the Committee convened for the purposes of rule 22.
- 4.10 disciplinary subcommittee means the subcommittee appointed under rule 20.
- 4.11 financial year means the 12-month period specified in rule 3.
- 4.12 general meeting means a general meeting of the member clubs of the Association convened in accordance with Part 4 and includes an annual general meeting and a special general meeting.
- 4.13 member club means an approved member club of the Association.
- 4.14 registered mediator means a person registered as a mediator accredited under the National Mediator Accreditation System developed by the Mediator Standards Board Limited ABN 11 145 829 812.

- 4.15 special resolution means a resolution that requires not less than three-quarters of the member clubs voting at a general meeting, whether in person or by proxy, to vote in favour of the resolution.
- 4.16 the Act means the Associations Incorporation Reform Act 2012 and includes any regulations made under that Act.
- 4.17 the Registrar means the Registrar of Incorporated Associations.

PART 2—POWERS OF ASSOCIATION

5 Powers of Association

- 5.1 Subject to the Act, the Association has power to do all things incidental or conducive to achieve its purposes.
- 5.2 Without limiting subrule (5.1), the Association may—
- 5.2.1 acquire, hold and dispose of real or personal property; or
 - 5.2.2 open and operate accounts with financial institutions; or
 - 5.2.3 invest its money in any security in which trust monies may lawfully be invested; or
 - 5.2.4 raise and borrow money on any terms and in any manner as it thinks fit; or
 - 5.2.5 secure the repayment of money raised or borrowed, or the payment of a debt or liability; or
 - 5.2.6 appoint agents to transact business on its behalf; or
 - 5.2.7 enter into any other contract it considers necessary or desirable.
- 5.3 The Association may only exercise its powers and use its income and assets (including any surplus) for its purposes.

6 Not for profit organisation

- 6.1 The Association must not distribute any surplus, income or assets directly or indirectly to its members.
- 6.2 Subrule (6.1) does not prevent the Association from paying a member—
- 6.2.1 reimbursement for expenses properly incurred by the member; or
 - 6.2.2 for goods or services provided by the member—
- if this is done in good faith on terms no more favourable than if the member was not a member.
- Note: Section 33 of the Act provides that an incorporated association must not secure pecuniary profit for its members. Section 4 of the Act sets out in more detail the circumstances under which an incorporated association is not taken to secure pecuniary profit for its members.

PART 3—MEMBERS, DISCIPLINARY PROCEDURES AND GRIEVANCES

Section 1—Membership

7 Minimum number of member clubs

The Association must have at least 5 member clubs.

8 Who is eligible to be a member club

Any club who supports the purposes of the Association is eligible for membership.

9 Application for membership

- 9.1 To apply to become a member club of the Association, a club must submit a written application to a committee member stating that the club—
- 9.1.1 wishes to become a member of the Association; and
 - 9.1.2 supports the purposes of the Association; and
 - 9.1.3 agrees to comply with these Rules.
- 9.1.4 The application—
- 9.1.4.1 must be signed by the secretary of the club; and
 - 9.1.4.2 may be accompanied by the joining fee.

Note: The joining fee is the fee (if any) determined by the Association under rule 12.

A requirement for a signature of a person may be met by electronic signature. See section 9 of the Electronic Transactions (Victoria) Act 2000.

- 9.2 To apply to become an associate member of the Association, a person must submit an application to the Association stating that the person—

9.2.1 wishes to become an associate member of the Association; and

9.2.2 supports the purposes of the Association; and

9.2.3 agrees to comply with these Rules.

9.2.4 The application—

9.1.4.1 must be signed by the secretary of the member club; and

9.1.4.2 may be accompanied by the joining fee.

Note: The joining fee is the fee (if any) determined by the Association under rule 12.

A requirement for a signature of a person may be met by electronic signature. See section 9 of the Electronic Transactions (Victoria) Act 2000.

10 Consideration of application

10.1 Club Membership

10.1.1 As soon as practicable after an application for club membership is received, the Committee must decide by resolution whether to accept or reject the application.

10.1.2 The Committee must notify the club in writing of its decision as soon as practicable after the decision is made.

10.1.3 If the Committee rejects the application, it must return any money accompanying the application to the club.

10.1.4 The Committee is not required to give a reason for the rejection of an application.

Note: An association may have obligations under Section 6 of Part 4 of the Equal Opportunity Act 2010.

10.2 Associate Membership

10.2.1 As soon as practicable after an application for associate membership is received, the Committee must decide by resolution whether to accept or reject the application.

10.2.2 The Committee must notify the person and club in writing of its decision as soon as practicable after the decision is made.

10.2.3 If the Committee rejects the application, it must return any money accompanying the application.

10.2.4 The Committee is not required to give a reason for the rejection of an application.

Note: An association may have obligations under Section 6 of Part 4 of the Equal Opportunity Act 2010.

11 New Membership

- 11.1 If an application for club or associate membership is approved by the Committee—

11.1.1 the resolution to accept the club or associate membership must be recorded in the minutes of the committee meeting; and

11.1.2 the Secretary must, as soon as practicable, ensure the club or associate members name and address, and the date on which they became a member, is recorded in the register of member clubs and associate members.

- 11.2 A club or associate becomes a member of the Association from the date on which both of the following have occurred—

11.2.1 the Committee approves the club's or associate's membership; and 11.2.2 the club or associate pays the joining fee.

11.2.3 Subject to rule 13.2, a club is entitled to exercise their rights of membership from the date referred to in subrule 2.

12 Annual subscription and fee on joining

- 12.1 At each annual general meeting, the Association must determine—

12.1.1 the process for setting the amount of the annual subscription (if any) for member clubs

- for the following financial year; and
- 12.1.2 the date for payment of the member club annual subscription.
- 12.2 The Association must determine the amount of the annual subscription payable by associate members.
- 12.3 The Association may determine that any new associate member, who joins after the start of a financial year must, for that financial year, pay a fee equal to—
 - 12.3.1 the full annual subscription; or
 - 12.3.2 a pro rata annual subscription based on the remaining part of the financial year; or
 - 12.3.3 a fixed amount determined from time to time by the Association.

13 General rights of member clubs

- 13.1 A member club of the Association who is entitled to vote has the right—
 - 13.1.1 to receive notice of general meetings and of proposed special resolutions in the manner and time prescribed by these Rules; and
 - 13.1.2 to submit items of business for consideration at a general meeting; and
 - 13.1.3 to attend and be heard at general meetings; and
 - 13.1.4 to have two delegates vote at a general meeting; and
 - 13.1.5 to have access to the minutes of general meetings and other documents of the Association as provided under rule 76; and
 - 13.1.6 to inspect the register of member clubs and associate members.
- 13.2 A member club is entitled to vote if—
 - 13.2.1 more than 10 business days have passed since the member club became a member of the Association; and
 - 13.2.2 the member club's membership rights are not suspended for any reason.

14 Associate members

- 14.1 Associate members of the Association include—
 - 14.1.1 any registered member of any registered club.
 - 14.1.2 any associate member under the age of 18 years; and
 - 14.1.3 any other category of member as determined by special resolution at a general meeting.
- 14.2 An associate member must not vote but may have other rights as determined by the Committee or by resolution at a general meeting.

15 Rights not transferable

The rights of a member club are not transferable and end when the membership ceases.

16 Ceasing membership

- 16.1 The associate membership of a person ceases on resignation, expulsion or death.
- 16.2 If a person ceases to be an associate member of the Association, the Secretary must, as soon as practicable, enter the date the person ceased to be an associate member in the register of associate members.

17 Resigning as a member

- 17.1 A member club or associate member may resign by notice in writing given to the Association. Note: Rule 75.3 sets out how notice may be given to the association. It includes by post or by handing the notice to a member of the committee.
- 17.2 A member club or associate member is taken to have resigned if—
 - 17.2.1 the member club or associate member's annual subscription is more than 12 months in arrears; or
 - 17.2.2 where no annual subscription is payable—
 - 17.2.2.1 the Secretary has made a written request to the member club or associate member to confirm that the member club or associate member wishes to remain a member; and
 - 17.2.2.2 the member club or associate member has not, within 3 months after receiving that request, confirmed in writing that the member wishes to remain a member.

18 Register of members

18.1 The Secretary must keep and maintain a register of member clubs and associate members that includes—

18.1.1 for each current member club or associate member—

18.1.1.2 the member club or associate member's name; and

18.1.1.3 the address for notice last given by the member club or associate member; and

18.1.1.4 the email address last given by the member club or associate member (if available); and

18.1.1.5 the date of becoming a member club or associate member; and

18.1.1.6 if the member is an associate member, a note to that effect; and

18.1.1.7 any other information determined by the Committee; and

18.1.2 for each former member club or associate member, the date on which they ceased to be a member of the Association.

18.2 Any member club or associate member may, at a reasonable time and free of charge, inspect the register of member clubs and associate members.

Note: Under section 59 of the Act, access to the personal information of a person recorded in the register of members may be restricted in certain circumstances. Section 58 of the Act provides that it is an offence to make improper use of information about a person obtained from the register of members.

Section 2—Disciplinary Action

19 Grounds for taking disciplinary action

The Association may take disciplinary action against a member club or associate member in accordance with this Division if it is determined that the member club or associate member—

19.1 has failed to comply with these Rules; or

19.2 refuses to support the purposes of the Association; or

19.3 has engaged in conduct prejudicial to the Association.

20 Disciplinary subcommittee

20.1 If the Committee is satisfied that there are sufficient grounds for taking disciplinary action against a member club or associate member, the Committee must appoint a disciplinary subcommittee to hear the matter and determine what action, if any, to take against the member club or associate member.

20.2 Subject to subrule 3, the Committee may appoint any person to a disciplinary subcommittee.

20.3 A person must not be appointed to a disciplinary subcommittee if the person is biased in favour of or against the member club or associate member concerned.

21 Notice to member club or associate member

21.1 Before disciplinary action is taken against a member club or associate member, the Secretary must give written notice to the member club or associate member—

21.1.1 stating that the Association proposes to take disciplinary action against the member club or associate member; and

21.1.2 stating the grounds for the proposed disciplinary action; and

21.1.3 specifying the date, place and time of the meeting at which the disciplinary subcommittee intends to consider the disciplinary action (the disciplinary meeting); and

21.1.4 advising the member club or associate member they may do one or both of the following—

21.1.4.1 attend the disciplinary meeting and address the disciplinary subcommittee at that meeting;

21.1.4.2 give a written statement to the disciplinary subcommittee at any time before the disciplinary meeting; and

- 21.1.5 setting out the member club or associate member's appeal rights under rule 23.
- 21.2 The notice must be given no earlier than 28 days, and no later than 14 days, before the disciplinary meeting is held.

22 Decision of subcommittee

- 22.1 At the disciplinary meeting, the disciplinary subcommittee must—
 - 22.1.1 give the member club or the associate member an opportunity to be heard; and
 - 22.1.2 consider any written statement submitted by the member club or associate member.
- 22.2 After complying with subrule 1, the disciplinary subcommittee may—
 - 22.2.1 take no further action against the member club or associate member; or
 - 22.2.2 subject to subrule 3—
 - 22.2.2.1 reprimand the member club or associate member; or
 - 22.2.2.2 suspend the membership rights of the member club or associate member for a specified period; or
 - 22.2.2.3 expel the member club or associate member from the Association.
- 22.3 The disciplinary subcommittee may not fine the member club or associate member.
- 22.4 The suspension of membership rights or the expulsion of a member club or associate member by the disciplinary subcommittee under this rule takes effect immediately after the vote is passed.

23 Appeal rights

- 23.1 A club or person whose membership rights have been suspended or who has been expelled from the Association under rule 22 may give notice to the effect that they wish to appeal against the suspension or expulsion.
- 23.2 The notice must be in writing and given—
 - 23.2.1 to the disciplinary subcommittee immediately after the vote to suspend or expel the club or person is taken; or
 - 23.2.2 to the Secretary not later than 7 days after the vote.
- 23.3 If a club or person has given notice under subrule 2, the Committee must appoint at least 3 persons to an appeal subcommittee to consider the appeal.
- 23.4 Subject to subrule 5, the Committee may appoint any person to an appeal subcommittee.
- 23.5 A person must not be appointed to an appeal subcommittee if the person—
 - 23.5.1 was appointed to the disciplinary subcommittee to hear and determine the matter of the member concerned; or
 - 23.5.2 has a personal interest in the dispute; or
 - 23.5.3 is biased in favour of or against the member concerned.
- 23.6 The committee must convene a meeting of the appeal subcommittee (the disciplinary appeal meeting) as soon as practicable and no later than 21 days after the notice of the appeal is received.
- 23.7 Notice of the disciplinary appeal meeting must be given to each member of the appeal subcommittee and the member concerned as soon as practicable and must—
 - 23.7.1 specify the date, time and place of the meeting; and
 - 23.7.2 state—
 - 23.7.2.1 the name of the club or person against whom the disciplinary action has been taken; and
 - 23.7.2.2 the grounds for taking that action; and
 - 23.7.2.3 that at the disciplinary appeal meeting the appeal subcommittee members present must vote on whether the decision to suspend or expel the club or person should be upheld or revoked.

24 Conduct of disciplinary appeal meeting

- 24.1 At a disciplinary appeal meeting—
 - 24.1.1 no business other than the question of the appeal may be conducted; and
 - 24.1.2 the appeal subcommittee must state the grounds for suspending or expelling the member club or associate member and the reasons for taking that action; and

- 24.1.3 the club or person whose membership has been suspended or who has been expelled must be given an opportunity to be heard.
- 24.2 After complying with subrule (1), members of the appeal subcommittee present and entitled to vote at the meeting must vote by secret ballot on the question of whether the decision to suspend or expel the club or person should be upheld or revoked.
- 24.3 A member may not vote by proxy at the meeting.
- 24.4 The decision is upheld if a majority of the persons voting at the meeting vote in favour of the decision.

Section 3—Grievance procedure

25 Application

- 25.1 The grievance procedure set out in this Division applies to disputes under these Rules between—
 - 25.1.1 a member club and another member club; and
 - 25.1.2 a member club and the Committee; and
 - 25.1.3 an associate member and the Association.
- 25.2 A member club or associate member must not initiate a grievance procedure in relation to a matter that is the subject of a disciplinary procedure until the disciplinary procedure has been completed.

26 Parties must attempt to resolve the dispute

The parties to a dispute must attempt to resolve the dispute between themselves within 14 days of the dispute coming to the attention of each party.

27 Appointment of mediator

- 27.1 If the parties to a dispute are unable to resolve the dispute between themselves within the time required by rule 26, the parties must within 10 days—
 - 27.1.1 notify the Committee of the dispute; and
 - 27.1.2 agree to or request the appointment of a mediator; and
 - 27.1.3 attempt in good faith to settle the dispute by mediation.
- 27.2 The mediator must be—
 - 27.2.1 a person chosen by agreement between the parties; or
 - 27.2.2 in the absence of agreement—
 - 27.2.2.1 if the dispute is between a member club and another member club—a person appointed by the Committee; or
 - 27.2.2.2 if the dispute is between an associate member and the Committee of the Association—a registered mediator.

Note: This includes a registered mediator appointed or employed by the Dispute Settlement Centre of Victoria or accredited by the Victorian Bar.
- 27.3 Subject to subrule 4, the Committee may appoint any person as a mediator.
- 27.4 The Committee must not appoint a person as a mediator if the person—
 - 27.4.1 has a personal interest in the dispute; or
 - 27.4.2 is biased in favour of or against any party.

28 Mediation process

- 28.1 The mediator to the dispute, in conducting the mediation, must—
 - 28.1.1 give each party every opportunity to be heard; and
 - 28.1.2 allow due consideration by all parties of any written statement submitted by any party; and
 - 28.1.3 ensure that natural justice is accorded to the parties throughout the mediation process.
- 28.2 The mediator must not determine the dispute.
- 28.3 Any costs of mediation are to be paid—
 - 28.3.1 if an agreement as to costs is reached between the parties—in accordance with that agreement; or 28.3.2 if there is no such agreement—by the Committee.

29 Failure to resolve dispute by mediation

If the mediation process does not resolve the dispute, the parties may seek to resolve the dispute in accordance with the Act or otherwise at law.

PART 4—GENERAL MEETINGS OF THE ASSOCIATION

30 Annual general meetings

- 30.1 The Committee must convene an annual general meeting of the Association to be held within 5 months after the end of each financial year.
- 30.2 Despite subrule 1, the Association may hold its first annual general meeting at any time within 18 months after its incorporation.
- 30.3 The Committee may determine the date, time and place of the annual general meeting.
- 30.4 The ordinary business of the annual general meeting is as follows—
 - 30.4.1 to confirm the minutes of the previous annual general meeting and of any special general meeting or general meeting held since then;
 - 30.4.2 to receive and consider—
 - 30.4.2.1 the annual report of the Committee on the activities of the Association during the preceding financial year; and
 - 30.4.2.2 the financial statements of the Association for the preceding financial year submitted by the Committee in accordance with Part 7 of the Act;
 - 30.4.3 to elect the members of the Committee;
 - 30.4.4 to determine the process for setting the amounts (if any) of the annual subscription and joining fee.
- 30.5 The annual general meeting may also conduct any other business of which notice has been given in accordance with these Rules.

31 Special general meetings

- 31.1 Any general meeting of the Association, other than an annual general meeting or a disciplinary appeal meeting, is a special general meeting.
- 31.2 The Committee may convene a special general meeting whenever it thinks fit.
- 31.3 No business other than that set out in the notice under rule 33 may be conducted at the meeting.
Note: General business may be considered at the meeting if it is included as an item for consideration in the notice under rule 33 and the majority of members at the meeting agree.

32 Special general meeting held at request of members

- 32.1 The Committee must convene a special general meeting if a request to do so is made in accordance with subrule 2 by at least 60% of the total number of member clubs, or at least 60% of all associate members.
- 32.2 A request for a special general meeting must—
 - 32.2.1 be in writing; and
 - 32.2.2 state the business to be considered at the meeting and any resolutions to be proposed; and
 - 32.2.3 include the names and signatures of the member clubs or associate members requesting the meeting; and
 - 32.2.4 be given to the Secretary.
- 32.3 If the Committee does not convene a special general meeting within one month after the date on which the request is made, the member clubs, or associate members making the request (or any of them) may convene the special general meeting.
- 32.4 A special general meeting convened under subrule 3—
 - 32.4.1 must be held within 3 months after the date on which the original request was made; and
 - 32.4.2 may only consider the business stated in that request.
- 32.5 The Association must reimburse all reasonable expenses incurred by the member clubs or associate members convening a special general meeting under subrule 3.

33 Notice of general meetings

- 33.1 The Secretary (or, in the case of a special general meeting convened under rule 32.3), must give to each member club of the Association—
- 33.1.1 at least 21 days' notice of a general meeting if a special resolution is to be proposed at the meeting; or
 - 33.1.2 at least 14 days' notice of a general meeting in any other case.
- 33.2 The notice must—
- 33.2.1 specify the date, time and place of the meeting; and
 - 33.2.2 indicate the general nature of each item of business to be considered at the meeting; and
 - 33.2.3 if a special resolution is to be proposed—
 - 33.2.3.1 state in full the proposed resolution; and
 - 33.2.3.2 state the intention to propose the resolution as a special resolution; and
 - 33.2.4 comply with rule 34.5.
- 33.3 This rule does not apply to a disciplinary appeal meeting.
Note Rule 23.4 sets out the requirements for notice of a disciplinary appeal meeting.

34 Proxies

- 34.1 A member club may appoint another associate member as the member clubs proxy to vote and speak on the member clubs behalf at a general meeting other than at a disciplinary appeal meeting.
- 34.2 The appointment of a proxy must be in writing and signed by the member club making the appointment.
- 34.3 The member club appointing the proxy may give specific directions as to how the proxy is to vote on the member's behalf, otherwise the proxy may vote on behalf of the member in any matter as the proxy sees fit.
- 34.4 If the Committee has approved a form for the appointment of a proxy, the member club may use any other form that clearly identifies the person appointed as the member's proxy and that has been signed by the member.
- 34.5 Notice of a general meeting given to a member club under rule 33 must—
- 34.5.1 state that the member club may appoint another associate member as a proxy for the meeting; and
 - 34.5.2 include a copy of any form that the Committee has approved for the appointment of a proxy.
- 34.6 A form appointing a proxy must be given to the Chairperson of the meeting before or at the commencement of the meeting.
- 34.7 A form appointing a proxy sent by post or electronically is of no effect unless it is received by the Association no later than 24 hours before the commencement of the meeting.

35 Use of technology

- 35.1 A general meeting may be held and member clubs may take part by the use of technology that allows member clubs to clearly and simultaneously communicate with each other participating member club.
- 35.2 For the purposes of this Part, a member club participating in a general meeting as permitted under subrule 1 is taken to be present at the meeting and, if the member club votes at the meeting, is taken to have voted in person.

36 Quorum at general meetings

- 36.1 No business may be conducted at a general meeting unless a quorum of member clubs is present.
- 36.2 The quorum for a general meeting is the presence (physically, by proxy or as allowed under rule 35 of 50% plus one of the member clubs entitled to vote.
- 36.3 If a quorum is not present within 30 minutes after the notified commencement time of a general meeting—

- 36.3.1 in the case of a meeting convened by, or at the request of, member clubs under rule 32—the meeting must be dissolved; or
Note: If a meeting convened by, or at the request of, member clubs is dissolved under this subrule, the business that was to have been considered at the meeting is taken to have been dealt with. If member clubs wish to have the business reconsidered at another special meeting, the member clubs must make a new request under rule 32.
- 36.3.2 in any other case—
 - 36.3.2.1 the meeting must be adjourned to a date not more than 21 days after the adjournment; and
 - 36.3.2.2 notice of the date, time and place to which the meeting is adjourned must be given at the meeting and confirmed by written notice given to all member clubs as soon as practicable after the meeting.
- 36.4 If a quorum is not present within 30 minutes after the time to which a general meeting has been adjourned under subrule (3), the member clubs present at the meeting (if not fewer than 51%) may proceed with the business of the meeting as if a quorum were present.

37 Adjournment of general meeting

- 37.1 The Chairperson of a general meeting at which a quorum is present may, with the consent of a majority of member clubs present at the meeting, adjourn the meeting to another time at the same place or at another place.
- 37.2 Without limiting subrule 1, a meeting may be adjourned—
 - 37.2.1 if there is insufficient time to deal with the business at hand; or
 - 37.2.2 to give the member clubs more time to consider an item of business.
Example: The member clubs may wish to have more time to examine the financial statements submitted by the Committee at an annual general meeting.
- 37.3 No business may be conducted on the resumption of an adjourned meeting other than the business that remained unfinished when the meeting was adjourned.
- 37.4 Notice of the adjournment of a meeting under this rule is not required unless the meeting is adjourned for 14 days or more, in which case notice of the meeting must be given in accordance with rule 33.

38 Voting at general meeting

- 38.1 On any question arising at a general meeting—
 - 38.1.1 subject to subrule 3, each member club can have two delegates who are entitled to one vote each; and
 - 38.1.2 member club delegates may vote personally or by proxy; and
 - 38.1.3 life members may vote personally or by proxy; and
 - 38.1.4 committee members may vote personally or by proxy; and
 - 38.1.5 except in the case of a special resolution, the question must be decided on a majority of votes.
- 38.2 If votes are divided equally on a question, the Chairperson of the meeting has a second or casting vote.
- 38.3 If the question is whether or not to confirm the minutes of a previous meeting, only member delegates who were present at that meeting may vote.
- 38.4 This rule does not apply to a vote at a disciplinary appeal meeting conducted under rule 24.

39 Special resolutions

A special resolution is passed if not less than three-quarters of those entitled to vote at a general meeting (whether in person or by proxy) vote in favour of the resolution.

Note: In addition to certain matters specified in the Act, a special resolution is required—

- 39.1 to remove a committee member from office;
- 39.2 to alter these Rules, including changing the name or any of the purposes of the Association.

40 Determining whether resolution carried

- 40.1 Subject to subrule (2), the Chairperson of a general meeting may, on the basis of a show of hands, declare that a resolution has been—

- 40.1.1 carried; or
- 40.1.2 carried unanimously; or
- 40.1.3 carried by a particular majority; or
- 40.1.4 lost—
and an entry to that effect in the minutes of the meeting is conclusive proof of that fact.
- 40.2 If a count is demanded by 3 or more member clubs on any question—
 - 40.2.1 the count must be taken at the meeting in the manner determined by the Chairperson of the meeting; and
 - 40.2.2 the Chairperson must declare the result of the resolution on the basis of the count.
 - 40.2.3 A count demanded on the election of the Chairperson or on a question of an adjournment must be taken immediately.
 - 40.2.4 A count demanded on any other question must be taken before the close of the meeting at a time determined by the Chairperson.

41 Minutes of general meeting

- 41.1 The Committee must ensure that minutes are taken and kept of each general meeting.
- 41.2 The minutes must record the business considered at the meeting, any resolution on which a vote is taken and the result of the vote.
- 41.3 In addition, the minutes of each annual general meeting must include—
 - 41.3.1 the names of the member clubs, their delegates, life members and committee members attending the meeting; and
 - 41.3.2 the financial statements submitted to the member clubs in accordance with rule 30.4.2.2 and
 - 41.3.3 the certificate signed by 2 committee members certifying that the financial statements give a true and fair view of the financial position and performance of the Association;
 - 41.3.4 any audited accounts and auditor's report or report of a review accompanying the financial statements that are required under the Act.

PART 5—COMMITTEE

Division 1—Powers of Committee

42 Role and powers

- 42.1 The business of the Association must be managed by or under the direction of a committee.
- 42.2 The Committee may exercise all the powers of the Association except those powers that these Rules or the Act require to be exercised by general meetings of the member clubs of the Association.
- 42.3 The Committee may—
 - 42.3.1 appoint and remove staff; and
 - 42.3.2 establish subcommittees consisting of associate members with terms of reference it considers appropriate.

43 Delegation

- 43.1 The Committee may delegate to a member of the Committee, a subcommittee or staff, any of its powers and functions other than—
 - 43.1.1 this power of delegation; or
 - 43.1.2 a duty imposed on the Committee by the Act or any other law.
- 43.2 The delegation must be in writing and may be subject to the conditions and limitations the Committee considers appropriate.
- 43.3 The Committee may, in writing, revoke a delegation wholly or in part.

Section 2—Composition of Committee and duties of members

44 Composition of Committee

The Committee consists of—

- 44.1 a President; and
- 44.2 a Vice-President; and
- 44.3 an Administrator; and
- 44.4 a Secretary; and
- 44.5 a Treasurer; and
- 44.6 ordinary members (if any) elected under rule 54.

45 General Duties

- 45.1 As soon as practicable after being elected or appointed to the Committee, each committee member must become familiar with these Rules and the Act.
- 45.2 The Committee is collectively responsible for ensuring that the Association complies with the Act and that individual members of the Committee comply with these Rules.
- 45.3 Committee members must exercise the member's powers and discharge the member's duties with reasonable care and diligence.
- 45.4 Committee members must exercise the member's powers and discharge the member's duties—
 - 45.4.1 in good faith in the best interests of the Association; and
 - 45.4.2 for a proper purpose.
- 45.5 Committee members and former committee members must not make improper use of—
 - 45.5.1 the member's, or former member's, position; or
 - 45.5.2 information acquired by virtue of holding the members, or former members, position—so as to gain an advantage for themselves or any other person or to cause detriment to the Association.

Note See also Division 3 of Part 6 of the Act which sets out the general duties of the office holders of an incorporated association.
- 45.6 In addition to any duties imposed by these Rules, a committee member must perform any other duties imposed from time to time by resolution at a general meeting.

46 President and Vice-President

- 46.1 Subject to subrule 2, the President or, in the President's absence, the Vice-President is the Chairperson for any general meetings and for any committee meetings.
- 46.2 If the President and the Vice-President are both absent, or are unable to preside, the Chairperson of the meeting must be—
 - 46.2.1 in the case of a general meeting—a member delegate elected by the other member delegates present; or
 - 46.2.2 in the case of a committee meeting—a committee member elected by the other committee members present.

47 Administrator

- 47.1 The Administrator is responsible for ensuring the association complies with these rules and operates in compliance with the Act and By-Laws created by the association.

48 Secretary

- 48.1 The Secretary must perform any duty or function required under the Act to be performed by the secretary of an incorporated association.
Example Under the Act, the secretary of an incorporated association is responsible for lodging documents of the association with the Registrar.
- 48.2 The Secretary must—
 - 48.2.1 maintain the register of member clubs and associate members in accordance with rule 18; and
 - 48.2.2 keep custody of the common seal (if any) of the Association and, except for the financial records referred to in rule 70.3, all books, documents and securities of the Association in accordance with rules 72 and 75 and
 - 48.2.3 subject to the Act and these Rules, provide member clubs or associate members with access to the register of member clubs and associate members, the minutes of general meetings and other books and documents; and

- 48.2.4 perform any other duty or function imposed on the Secretary by these Rules.
- 48.3 The Secretary must give to the Registrar notice of the Secretary's appointment within 14 days after the appointment.

49 Treasurer

- 49.1 The Treasurer must—
- 49.1.1 receive all moneys paid to or received by the Association and issue receipts for those moneys in the name of the Association; and
 - 49.1.2 ensure that all moneys received are paid into the account of the Association within 5 working days after receipt; and
 - 49.1.3 make any payments authorised by the Committee or by a general meeting of the Association from the Association's funds; and
 - 49.1.4 ensure cheques are signed by at least 2 committee members.
- 49.2 The Treasurer must—
- 49.2.1 ensure that the financial records of the Association are kept in accordance with the Act; and
 - 49.2.2 coordinate the preparation of the financial statements of the Association and the Association's certification by the Committee prior to the Association's submission to the annual general meeting of the Association.
- 49.3 The Treasurer must ensure that all other committee members have access to the account and financial records of the Association.

Section 3—Election of Committee members and tenure of office

50 Who is eligible to be a committee member

A delegate of a member club or a life member is eligible to be elected or appointed as a committee member if the delegate—

- 49.1 is 18 years or over; and
- 49.2 is entitled to vote at a general meeting.

51 Positions to be declared vacant

- 51.1 This rule applies to—
- 51.1.1 the first annual general meeting of the Association after its incorporation; or
 - 51.1.2 any subsequent annual general meeting of the Association, after the annual report and financial statements of the Association have been received.
- 51.2 The Chairperson of the meeting must declare positions on the Committee vacant and hold elections for those positions in accordance with rules 53 to 56.
- 51.3 Committee members will hold office for a period of two years, which shall be staggered between the positions.

52 Nominations

- 52.1 Prior to the election of each position, the Chairperson of the meeting must call for nominations to fill that position.
- 52.2 An eligible member delegate or life member of the Association may—
- 52.2.1 nominate himself or herself; or
 - 52.2.2 with the member delegate's or life member's consent, be nominated by another member delegate or life member.
- 52.3 A member delegate or life member who is nominated for a position and fails to be elected to that position may be nominated for any other position for which an election is yet to be held.

53 Election of President etc.

- 53.1 At the annual general meeting, separate elections must be held for each of the following positions—
- 53.1.1 President;
 - 53.1.2 Vice-President;
 - 53.1.3 Administrator;

53.1.4 Secretary;

53.1.5 Treasurer.

53.2 If only one member delegate or life member is nominated for the position, the Chairperson of the meeting must declare the person elected to the position.

53.3 If more than one member delegate or life member is nominated, a ballot must be held in accordance with rule 55.

53.4 On the President's election, the new President may take over as Chairperson of the meeting.

54 Election of ordinary members

54.1 The annual general meeting must by resolution decide the number of ordinary members of the Committee (if any) it wishes to hold office for the next year.

54.2 A single election may be held to fill all of those positions.

54.3 If the number of member delegates or life members nominated for the position of ordinary committee member is less than or equal to the number to be elected, the Chairperson of the meeting must declare each of those nominated to be elected to the position.

54.4 If the number of member delegates or life members nominated exceeds the number to be elected, a ballot must be held in accordance with rule 55.

55 Ballot

55.1 If a ballot is required for the election for a position, the Chairperson of the meeting must appoint a member delegate or life member to act as returning officer to conduct the ballot.

55.2 The returning officer must not be a person nominated for the position.

55.3 Before the ballot is taken, each candidate may make a short speech in support of the candidate's election.

55.4 The election must be by secret ballot.

55.5 If the election is held in person, the returning officer must give a blank piece of paper to—

55.5.1 each member delegate, life member and committee member present in person; and

55.5.2 each proxy appointed by those above.

Example If a member delegate has been appointed the proxy of 5 other member delegates, the member delegate must be given 6 ballot papers—one for the member delegate and one each for the other proxy member delegates.

55.6 If the ballot is for a single position, the voter must write on the ballot paper the name of the candidate for whom they wish to vote.

55.7 If the ballot is for more than one position—

55.7.1 the voter must write on the ballot paper the name of each candidate for whom they wish to vote;

55.7.2 the voter must not write the names of more candidates than the number to be elected.

55.8 Ballot papers that do not comply with subrule 7.2 are not to be counted.

55.9 Each ballot paper on which the name of a candidate has been written counts as one vote for that candidate.

55.10 The returning officer must declare elected the candidate or, in the case of an election for more than one position, the candidates who received the most votes.

55.11 If the returning officer is unable to declare the result of an election under subrule 10 because 2 or more candidates received the same number of votes, the returning officer must—

55.11.1 conduct a further election for the position in accordance with subrules 4 to 10 to decide which of those candidates is to be elected; or

55.11.2 with the agreement of those candidates, decide by lot which of them is to be elected.

Examples The choice of candidate may be decided by the toss of a coin, drawing straws or drawing a name out of a hat.

56 Term of office

56.1 Subject to subrule 3 and rule 57, a committee member holds office until the positions of the Committee are declared vacant at the next annual general meeting.

56.2 A committee member may be re-elected.

56.3 A general meeting of the Association may—

56.3.1 by special resolution remove a committee member from office; and

56.3.2 elect an eligible member delegate or life member of the Association to fill the vacant position in accordance with this Division.

56.4 A member delegate or life member who is the subject of a proposed special resolution under subrule 3.1 may make representations in writing to the Secretary or President of the Association (not exceeding a reasonable length) and may request that the representations be provided to the member clubs of the Association.

56.5 The Secretary or the President may give a copy of the representations to each member club of the Association or, if they are not so given, the member delegate or life member may require that they be read out at the meeting at which the special resolution is to be proposed.

57 Vacation of office

57.1 A committee member may resign from the Committee by written notice addressed to the Committee.

57.2 A person ceases to be a committee member if the person—

57.2.1 ceases to be a member of the Association; or

57.2.2 fails to attend 3 consecutive committee meetings (other than special or urgent committee meetings) without leave of absence under rule 68; or 57.2.3 otherwise ceases to be a committee member by operation of section 78 of the Act. Note A Committee member may not hold the office of Secretary if they do not reside in Australia.

58 Filling casual vacancies

58.1 The Committee may appoint an eligible member delegate or life member of the Association to fill a position on the Committee that—

58.1.1 has become vacant under rule 56; or

58.1.2 was not filled by election at the last annual general meeting.

58.2 If the position of Secretary becomes vacant, the Committee must appoint a member delegate or life member to the position within 14 days after the vacancy arises.

58.3 Rule 55 applies to any committee member appointed by the Committee under subrule (1) or (2).

58.4 The Committee may continue to act despite any vacancy in its membership.

Section 4—Meetings of Committee

59 Meetings of Committee

59.1 The Committee must meet at least 4 times in each year at the dates, times and places determined by the Committee.

59.2 The date, time and place of the first committee meeting must be determined by the members of the Committee as soon as practicable after the annual general meeting of the Association at which the members of the Committee were elected.

59.3 Special committee meetings may be convened by the President or by any 4 members of the Committee.

60 Notice of meetings

60.1 Notice of each committee meeting must be given to each committee member no later than 7 days before the date of the meeting.

60.2 Notice may be given of more than one committee meeting at the same time.

60.3 The notice must state the date, time and place of the meeting.

60.4 If a special committee meeting is convened, the notice must include the general nature of the business to be conducted.

60.5 The only business that may be conducted at the meeting is the business for which the meeting is convened.

61 Urgent meetings

- 61.1 In cases of urgency, a meeting can be held without notice being given in accordance with rule 60 provided that as much notice as practicable is given to each committee member by the quickest means practicable.
- 61.2 Any resolution made at the meeting must be passed by an absolute majority of the Committee.
- 61.3 The only business that may be conducted at an urgent meeting is the business for which the meeting is convened.

62 Procedure and order of business

- 62.1 The procedure to be followed at a meeting of a committee must be determined from time to time by the Committee.
- 62.2 The order of business may be determined by the members present at the meeting.

63 Use of technology

- 63.1 A committee meeting may be held by the use of technology that allows committee members to clearly and simultaneously communicate with each other participating member.
- 63.2 For the purposes of this Part, a committee member participating in a committee meeting as permitted under subrule (1) is taken to be present at the meeting and, if the member votes at the meeting, is taken to have voted in person.

64 Quorum

- 64.1 No business may be conducted at a committee meeting unless a quorum is present.
- 64.2 The quorum for a committee meeting is the presence (in person or as allowed under rule 63 of a majority of the committee members holding office.
- 64.3 If a quorum is not present within 30 minutes after the notified commencement time of a committee meeting—
- 64.3.1 in the case of a special meeting—the meeting lapses;
 - 64.3.2 in any other case—the meeting must be adjourned to a date no later than 14 days after the adjournment and notice of the date, time and place to which the meeting is adjourned must be given in accordance with rule 60.

65 Voting

- 65.1 On any question arising at a committee meeting, each committee member present at the meeting has one vote.
- 65.2 A motion is carried if a majority of committee members present and voting at the meeting vote in favour of the motion.
- 65.3 Subrule 2 does not apply to any motion or question which is required by these Rules to be passed by an absolute majority of the Committee.
- 65.4 If votes are divided equally on a question, the Chairperson of the meeting has a second or casting vote.
- 65.5 Voting by proxy is not permitted.

66 Conflict of interest

- 66.1 A committee member who has a material personal interest in a matter being considered at a committee meeting must disclose the committee member's position and the nature and extent of that interest to the Committee.
- 66.2 The member—
- 66.2.1 must not be present while the matter is being considered at the meeting; and
 - 66.2.2 must not vote on the matter.
- Note Under section 81(3) of the Act, if there are insufficient committee members to form a quorum because a member who has a material personal interest is disqualified from voting on a matter, a general meeting may be called to deal with the matter.
- 66.3 This rule does not apply to a material personal interest—
- 66.3.1 that exists only because the member belongs to a class of persons for whose benefit the Association is established; or 66.3.2 that the member has in common with all, or a substantial proportion of, the members of the Association.

66.4 The Committee must keep a conflict of interest register.

66.5 The conflict of interest register must record the following—

66.5.1 the name and position of the member who has disclosed a material personal interest;

66.5.2 a description of the nature and extent of that interest;

66.5.3 a management plan documenting actions required to mitigate the conflict.

67 Minutes of meeting

67.1 The Committee must ensure that minutes are taken and kept of each committee meeting.

67.2 The minutes must record the following—

67.2.1 the names of the members in attendance at the meeting;

67.2.2 the business considered at the meeting;

67.2.3 any resolution on which a vote is taken and the result of the vote;

67.2.4 any material personal interest disclosed under rule 65.

68 Leave of absence

68.1 The Committee may grant a committee member leave of absence from committee meetings for a period not exceeding 3 months.

68.2 The Committee must not grant leave of absence retrospectively unless it is satisfied that it was not feasible for the committee member to seek the leave in advance.

PART 6—FINANCIAL MATTERS

69 Source of funds

The funds of the Association may be derived from joining fees, annual subscriptions, donations, fundraising activities, grants, interest and any other sources approved by the Committee.

70 Management of funds

70.1 The Association must open an account with a financial institution from which all expenditure of the Association is made and into which all of the Association's revenue is deposited.

70.2 Subject to any restrictions imposed by a general meeting of the Association, the Committee may approve expenditure on behalf of the Association.

70.3 The Committee may authorise the Treasurer to expend funds on behalf of the Association (including by electronic funds transfer) up to a specified limit without requiring approval from the Committee for each item on which the funds are expended.

70.4 All cheques, drafts, bills of exchange, promissory notes and other negotiable instruments must be signed by 2 committee members.

70.5 All funds of the Association must be deposited into the financial account of the Association no later than 5 working days after receipt.

70.6 Despite subrule 1, the Committee may authorise the Treasurer to maintain a petty cash fund for minor and incidental expenses of the Association.

70.7 The Treasurer must record the withdrawal or deposit of an amount from the petty cash fund at the time of the transaction.

71 Financial records

71.1 The Association must keep financial records that—

71.1.1 correctly record and explain its transactions, financial position and performance; and

71.1.2 enable financial statements to be prepared as required by the Act.

71.2 The Association must retain the financial records for 7 years after the transactions covered by the records are completed.

71.3 The Treasurer must keep in the Treasurer's custody, or under the Treasurer's control—

71.3.1 the financial records for the current financial year; and 71.3.2 any other financial records as authorised by the Committee.

72 Financial statements

- 72.1 For each financial year, the Committee must ensure that the requirements under the Act relating to the financial statements of the Association are met.
- 72.2 Without limiting subrule 1, those requirements include—
- 72.2.1 the preparation of the financial statements; and
 - 72.2.2 if required, the review or auditing of the financial statements; and
 - 72.2.3 the certification of the financial statements by the Committee; and
 - 72.2.4 the submission of the financial statements to the annual general meeting of the Association; and
 - 72.2.5 the lodgement with the Registrar of the financial statements and accompanying reports, certificates, statements and fee.

PART 7—GENERAL MATTERS73 Common seal

- 73.1 The Association may have a common seal.
- 73.2 If the Association has a common seal—
- 73.2.1 the name of the Association must appear in legible characters on the common seal; and
 - 73.2.2 a document may only be sealed with the common seal by the authority of the Committee and the sealing must be witnessed by the signatures of 2 committee members; and
 - 73.2.3 the common seal must be kept in the custody of the Secretary.

74 Registered address

The registered address of the Association is—

- 74.1 the address determined from time to time by resolution of the Committee; or
- 74.2 if the Committee has not determined an address to be the registered address—the postal address of the Secretary.

75 Notice requirements

- 75.1 Any notice required to be given to a member club, life member or a committee member under these Rules may be given—
- 75.1.1 by handing the notice to the member club delegate, life member or committee member personally; or
 - 75.1.2 by sending it by post to the address recorded on the register of members; or
 - 75.1.3 by email or facsimile transmission.
- 75.2 Subrule 1 does not apply to notice given under rule 61.
- 75.3 Any notice required to be given to the Association or the Committee may be given—
- 75.3.1 by handing the notice to a member of the Committee; or
 - 75.3.2 by sending the notice by post to the registered address; or
 - 75.3.3 by leaving the notice at the registered address; or
 - 75.3.4 if the Committee determines that it is appropriate in the circumstances—
 - 75.3.4.1 by email to the email address of the Association or the Secretary; or
 - 75.3.4.2 by facsimile transmission to the facsimile number of the Association.

76 Custody and inspection of books and records

- 76.1 Member clubs, life members or associate members may on request inspect free of charge any of the following—
- 76.1.1 the register of member clubs and associate members;
 - 76.1.2 the minutes of general meetings;
 - 76.1.3 subject to subrule 2, the financial records, books, securities and any other relevant document of the Association, including minutes of Committee meetings.
- Note See note following rule 18 for details of access to the register of member clubs and associate members.

- 76.2 The Committee may refuse to permit a member club, life member or associate member to inspect records of the Association that relate to confidential, personal, employment, commercial or legal matters or where to do so may be prejudicial to the interests of the Association.
- 76.3 The Committee must on request make available, or provide copies of, these Rules available to member clubs, life members or associate members and applicants for membership free of charge.
- 76.4 Subject to subrule 2, a member club, life member or associate member may request a copy of, or make a copy of, any of the other records of the Association referred to in this rule and the Association may charge a reasonable fee for provision of a copy of such a record.
- 76.5 For the purposes of this rule—
relevant document means any record or other document, however compiled, recorded or stored, that relates to the incorporation and management of the Association and includes the following—
- 76.5.1 a membership record;
 - 76.5.2 a financial statement;
 - 76.5.3 a financial record;
 - 76.5.4 any other record or document relating to transactions, dealings, business or property of the Association.

77 Winding up and cancellation

- 77.1 The Association may be wound up voluntarily by special resolution.
- 77.2 In the event of the winding up or the cancellation of the incorporation of the Association, the surplus assets of the Association must not be distributed to any member clubs or associate members or former member clubs or associate members of the Association.
- 77.3 Subject to the Act and any court order made under section 133 of the Act, the surplus assets must be given to a body that has similar purposes to the Association and which is not carried on for the profit or gain of its individual members.
- 77.4 The body to which the surplus assets are to be given must be decided by special resolution.

78 Alteration of Rules

These Rules may only be altered by special resolution of a general meeting of the Association.

Note: An alteration of these Rules does not take effect unless or until it is approved by the Registrar. If these Rules (other than rule 1, 2 or 3) are altered, the Association is taken to have adopted its own rules, not the model rules.
